Christmas under the stars

We invite you to celebrate the festive season with a touch of stardust in 2021.

Christmas is a very special time of year where we take the time to celebrate the season with our friends and colleagues. This year, we invite you to celebrate with us under the stars at Bristol Museum & Art Gallery with a choice of festive packages to suit all.

These packages are available through the festive season and into the New Year, perfect if your team are too busy in the festive season or if you prefer a winter ball over a Christmas party! Exclusive festive lunches are available on Mondays throughout the Christmas season, please get in touch to find out more.

“The museum just took our breath away! It was more than we could ever expect.”
